Regulations for Attending the Exhibition

Exhibitors must follow the regulations strictly, and any exhibitor that violates the rule will be stopped for the exhibition if they don't improve after given the advice.

General Information

1. Exhibitor should use one application form for one registering unit, and other industries must not be combined into the application (such as bank, oversea wedding photography... etc.). If there is any violation, the host unit reserves the right of taking back the booth combined and deposit.
2. The deposit won't be refunded: Exhibitors who decide to cancel its qualification after booth allocation, all of the expense that has been paid won't be returned instead it will be used as the funds for the exhibition.
3. Exhibitors should not transfer the booth rented in private or attend the exhibition under the company name different from the name on the registration (including the names of the sponsors). If there is any violation, the host unit could take back the booth transferred and stop the exhibition of the exhibitor that is not the same as the one on the registration form.
4. The products exhibited must meet the topic of the exhibition. Otherwise, it must not be exhibited. If there is any deceiving, the exhibitor will be banned for the exhibition and the expense paid won't be returned.
5. In order to comply with the measurement of anti-counterfeiting requested by the government, our exhibition strictly forbids the products with false information on country of origin as well as the products with false logo, or invasion of other people's patent or copyright. If it is found that the exhibitors know the product displayed has been judged with the facts of false mislabeling and invading trade mark, patent or copyright but still be displayed, the host unit could stop all of its exhibition as well as confiscate the expenses that have been paid. The products that are involved with lawsuit caused by trade mark, patent or copyright invasion will be forbidden for exhibition by the host unit, and the exhibitors must not have objection. Exhibitors should also take the full compensation responsibility if the host unit is involved with lawsuit or generated other damage.
6. The host unit reserves the right of change the exhibition date and venue. If the date or venue must be changed because of natural disaster or other unavoidable forces, the host unit won't refund the expense received nor take other compensation responsibility.
7. The host unit has the right of reducing the booth area or booth quantity according to the capacity of venue.
8. Exhibitors must not produce noise over 85 dB during the exhibition. The smoke, gas & dust, odor & irritant gas, and volatile organic chemical solvent pollutant caused by demonstration and operating products should be carefully dealt with right away with the self-prepared pollution processing equipment. The booths nearby and the exhibition at the spot must not be influenced; otherwise, the demonstration should be stopped or the exhibition should be terminated.
9. The products exhibited that are not allowed to be taken photos or videoed by the visitors should be added a remark board of "no photo" or "no video" in both Chinese and English. However, please work with those who hold PRESS ID card issued by the host unit for the promotion work.

Order at the exhibition

1. The display area of the exhibitor is limited within the booth, and it is not allowed to display products on the area outside the booth such as public facilities, aisle or wall. It is also forbidden to put up any promotional information, including promotional item or distribute catalogue, publication and souvenir. If there is any violation, it will be removed with force by the host unit.
2. All of the items that are explosive, inflammable and dangerous as well as prohibited products are forbidden to bring into the exhibition hall: If it is found, the host unit could force to move them away from the exhibition; all of the expense and responsibility should be at the exhibitor's side.
3. Safety insurance:
 - (1) During the exhibition (including pre-exhibition decoration and post-exhibited removal), the supervising staff at the host unit is in charge of monitoring the entrance of the exhibition hall, maintaining public order of staff and displayed items entering the exhibition. Exhibitor should assigned personnel to take care of its products, decorating materials, and engineering facility. Please buy the insurance for the valued articles as well as hire safety guide for security reinforcement. If there is any loss or damage, the host unit won't take the responsibility of compensation.

- (2) Exhibitors must obtain fire insurance, burglary insurance, marine insurance, and public liability insurance (including additional natural disaster insurance, such as typhoon, earthquake, flood, heavy rain, and other natural disaster) themselves from the exhibiting items and decorations delivered to the exhibition hall until the removal from the hall after exhibition ends. If there is any loss or damage during above period, the host unit won't take the responsibility of compensation.
- (3) Exhibitors should take the full compensation and legal responsibility for the casualties of their staff or any third party and property damage caused by the improper or neglecting setting-up, operation, maintenance, or management on the facilities, articles, and exhibiting items at booth during exhibition period (including decoration pre-exhibition and removal after the exhibition).
- (4) Access the hall with badge: Exhibitors should collect badges from information desk when delivering the goods to the exhibition hall, and badge be wore to access the hall during exhibition.
- (5) Other than the host unit, no one could distribute leaflet, conduct promotional activities, and place company or personal items in public area.

Violation handling

1. The host unit will suspend the water and electricity supply immediately or conduct the measure of stopping exhibition if there is any violation from the exhibitors and they are advised by the host unit twice but in vain or when it is too urgent to give advice.
2. If there is any unaccomplished matter on above regulations, the host unit could modify it any time.

Notice

1. Standard contracts
 - A. If gift coupons, accommodation coupons, hot-spring coupons, and meal coupons will be sold during the exhibition, the relevant regulations of "Mandatory and Prohibitory Provisions To Be Included In Standard Contracts for Hotel Goods (Services) Coupons" must be followed and a copy of the contract should be provided during the registration.
 - B. According to the rules on January 14th, 2010 from Tourism Bureau, Ministry of Transportation and Communications, the issuers of tourism hotel coupons from then on are only limited on the vendors in tourism and hotel industry to avoid the inconsistency of coupon issuers and service providers and cause confusion. Besides, the third party name, entrust sales period, and the reference number of the approval from target business competent authority must be stated clearly on the coupon in order to protect consumer's right if the vendor would like to entrust the third party to sell coupons.
 - C. Please visit Tourism Bureau, Ministry of Transportation and Communications (www.taiwan.net.tw) for the relevant rules look up.
 - D. Refuse the troubled companies that are recognized by Consumer Protection Committee or consumer ombudsman officer at local government to attend the exhibition as the exhibitors.
2. The exhibition name and content of the proposal are all at "estimation, planning" stage, and the correct exhibition name, content, advertisement, promotional name, and exhibition area planning will be adjusted according to the real recruitment.
